Contents

Truth: The Newsletter of the Association of Black Women Historians 2
by Sylvia M. Jacobs, North Carolina Central University

The Manipulation of the Production and Reproduction of African Women in the Caribbean During Slavery (Winter 1996) 3
by June Soomer

Slave Women of the Sea Islands of the South (Summer 1985) 8
by Margaret Washington Creel

Black Women and Segregated Public Transportation:
Ninety Years of Resistance (April 1986) 17
by Willi Coleman

Examination of Black Female Grass Roots
Leaders in Mississippi During the 1960s: Annie Devine, Fannie Lou Hamer and Annie Rankin (Winter 1986) 23
by Jacqueline A. Rouse

Creating a Black Female Professional Class
After the Civil War (Winter/Spring 1997) 31
by Stephanie J. Shaw

Maggie Lena Walker (Fall 1985) 39
by Celia Jackson Suggs

Race, Sex and Class: Black Female Tobacco Workers in Durham, North Carolina, 1920-1940
and the Development of Feminine Consciousness (January 1984) 45
by Beverly W. Jones

Liberian Women—Cultural Assimilation
in the Nineteenth Century (January 1985) 55
by Debra L. Newman

Women Suffrage: "First Because We Are Women and Second Because We Are Colored Women'" (April 1985) 63
by Rosalyn Terborg-Penn